Karnataka State Law University,
Navanagar, Hubballi-580025, Karnataka, India
ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

The Karnataka State Law University was established in 2009 with the avowed object of providing quality legal education in the State of Karnataka. It is making all out efforts for the growth of legal education in Karnataka. The University has catered to the needs and requirements of legal education by bringing uniformity in administration of curriculum across the State. It is the single largest affiliating Law University in the country affiliating 106 law colleges spread over the entire State of Karnataka and operating its own Law School at the main campus in Hubballi.

ABOUT THE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME:

A well-equipped faculty is the strength of any University. To provide opportunities to enhance the capabilities of the faculty members, the University periodically organizes international/national seminars, symposia, workshops, etc. apart from encouraging research activities. In addition, the University publishes three professional law journals, to bring the faculty members in contact with the scholars of national repute in specialized areas. The University has conceived a week-long Faculty Development Programme in the area of Corporate and Commercial Law.

Business law and commercial law are broad legal topics that encompass business, commerce, consumer transactions and the formation and management of business entities. The role of legal professionals in the business environment is gaining importance as laws are getting more stringent and complex as well. Adherence to local laws at every step of a business venture right from starting a new company to hiring employees and paying up taxes is important to avoid being pulled-up for non-compliance.

Corporate firms need to comply with a whole gamut of laws, including but not limited to international law, intellectual property, trademarks, labour, commercial arbitration, finance, taxation, insurance, capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, and investment securities.

The University has enlisted the support and encouragement of the eminent resource persons for the programme from across the nation.
