~~~~*

In continuation of earlier circular as in ref.no.01, all the Principals of affiliated Law colleges of KSLU are hereby informed that, the students who require Eligibility Certificates for admission to Law courses may apply directly to the University with all original documents or through the admitting college in the prescribed form. Respective college Principals must take responsibility of verifying the original documents, scan them and mail them through official e-mail to KSLU's e-mail address (caseworker.acad.kslu@gmail.com) and attested copies of the same should be submitted with the eligibility application. The originals shall be produced before the University authorities for confirmation of the Provisional Eligibility within the time stipulated by the University.

Hence, it is once again informed not to admit the students without the Eligibility Certificate. In case any admission is made without eligibility, the concerned college is solely responsible.

This is for your information and necessary action.
