

Constitutional Law Club

The Constitutional Law Club of Law School organizes various activities to discuss and deliberate on the emerging trends in the field of constitutional law. It is an attempt to extend the teaching learning process beyond the class room boundaries wherein, discussions on certain issues take place which does not form the part of syllabus. The club through its activities enables the students to get equipped with latest development with respect to the subject and also develops the analytical ability of the students. Issues like third gender and equality, recent amendments made to the Constitution, judgments delivered by the higher judiciary, etc., forms the part of discussion of the club.
