

Young Nani- English Club

Initiated on 6th October 2015. Nani Ardeshir Palkhivala (1920-2002) was fondly called as Nani. An outstanding advocate, a distinguished orator who had cultivated masterly persuasiveness and skills of advocacy that could keep the court completely spell-bound. The height of eloquence that he achieved can seldom be surpassed. Hence, he is the perennial source of inspiration for the English club.

Activities like analyzing poems, literature, phonetics etc., are a part of the club.